JOTTINGS BY THE WAY.

Excellent addresses were given by the Rev. W. Roberts and Rev. C. Cosens Petch for Dr. Barnardo's Homes and the Religious Tract Society, on March 9th and 18th respectively. £1 1s. 5d. was collected for the Homes, also £1 14s. 0d. in the boxes. £1 3s. 9d. for the Tract Society, also two subscriptions of 10/6 each.

Some sixty people sat down to the C.M.S. Tea, kindly provided by Mrs. Fothergill, Mrs. Brooke, Mrs. Danson and Mrs. Heywood. A splendid meeting was held at the conclusion and the Rev. Sidney Swann's address will be long remembered by all who heard it. Net result, £2 7s. 3d.

The Annual Vestry Meeting for the election of Church officers will be held on Easter Tuesday at 7-0 p.m.

Dr. Johnston gave an excellent address to the C.E.T.S. on March 26th, and during the evening the following received their certificates for S. John's Ambulance Association:—JUNIOR DIVISION, Alan Sanderson. CERTIFICATES: Messrs. John Greenop, James Wilson, John W. Hodgson, Robert Just, James Baisbrown, Sam Garside, Ernest Philipson, the Misses Margaret Benson, Sarah Wilson, Agnes Graham, Jane Machell, May Porter, Violet Hayes, Mary Baisbrown, Annie Mostyn, Helen Read. VOUCHERS: Messrs. Wilson, Wilkinson and Tom Cannan. MEDALLION: Mr. William Jopson.

The Ladies Working Party held a last meeting on March 30th. A good stock of salable articles has been gathered together, thanks to their patient and plodding endeavours. It is hoped that some who have not been able to attend these gatherings will contribute some articles to the sale which it is proposed to hold shortly after Whitsuntide.

The Sowers' Band has done excellent work and our young people will have quite a nice little stall to themselves.
