The Annual Excursion of Church Workers took place on Saturday, June 25th. The Sidesmen, Choir, Sunday School Teachers, Bellringers and others, numbering 37, left Grasmere shortly before 7 o'clock, and arrived at Liverpool about 10-30, where, after luncheon, the time was spent in visiting the Royal Agricultural Show, Docks, Cathedral, Picture Gallery, etc. Tea was served at 5 o'clock, and the party reached Grasmere at 10-45, having spent a most enjoyable day. Hearty thanks are due to Mr. H. Baldry for the thoroughness and kindness with which he arranged every detail for the comfort of the party.
