lent Society.

COMMUNICANTS' GUILD.

The first meeting of the Women's Communicants' Guild will be held in the Rectory Room on Thursday evening, Sept. 29th, at 8 o'clock, when those who have been confirmed this year will be welcomed into the Guild.

CHURCH LADS' GUILD.

It is hoped that the lads who were confirmed in June will form the nucleus of a Church Lads' Guild, and the Rector will be glad to receive the names of those who wish to join this class. Particulars of the time and place of meeting will be given in due course.

THE HARVEST THANKSGIVING.

The Harvest Thanksgiving Services will be held on Sunday, Oct. 16th. Gifts of flowers, plants and fruit will be thankfully received, and also the assistance of those who are willing to help in the work of decorating the Church.

S. OSWALD'S MEN'S GUILD.

The opening lecture had been arranged for Thursday, Oct. 27th, but unfortunately the lecturer is so unwell that there is, at present, very considerable doubt whether he will be able to fulfil his engagement until a later month. The Rev. Canon Cooper has therefore kindly consented to give the first lecture, in the Rectory Room on Thursday, Oct. 20th, at 8 p.m., and his subject will be "Scenes in the Prairies and British Columbia." It will be illustrated with lime-light views.

All men in the parish are asked to attend the meetings of this Guild. Only the lectures will be open to women who are heartily invited to attend them.

MISSIONARY WORKING PARTY.

The first meeting of the Missionary Working Party will be held in the Rectory Room, on Tuesday, Oct. 11th, at 2 o'clock.

THE PARISH LIBRARY.

The Library will be re-opened at the School on Friday, Oct. 7th, for Senior and Junior Sections, at 4 p.m., and each Friday during the Winter months at the close of school. Subscription: One Penny a month.

GIFT TO THE CHURCH.

Mr. Robert Hayes has kindly offered to give and plant the ivy, creepers and climbing roses for the Tower and Porch of the Church—an acceptable gift for which we offer him sincere thanks.

Is there anyone who would present to the Church a new set of Service Books for the Altar, Sanctuary and Clergy Stalls? The ones at present in use are very much soiled and torn, besides being considerably scored owing to corrections in the Prayers for the Royal Family.

It is respectfully requested, however, that no purchase be made before consulting the Rector, as the size, type, arrangement and binding of the books have to be carefully considered.

Baptism.

"Suffer the little Children to come unto Me."

Sept. 4th. Frank, son of Thomas and Nancy Howson.

VILLAGE NOTES.

Rainfall in August, 12.99 inches. Rain fell on 24 days.

Dressmaking classes will be held in the Rectory Room on Wednesday, Oct. 12th, from 2 to 4 p.m. and on following Wednesdays at the same hour. Lecturers: The Misses Eleanor and Gertrude Simpson.

Three Lectures on Horticulture will be given at intervals of about 6 weeks. The date of the first has been fixed for Thursday, Oct. 27th, at 8 p.m., and the subject will be "Insect Pests." The second lecture will be on "Flowers," and the third on "Vegetables."

Three out-door demonstrations will be given in the Spring, as follows:—

1. Fruit-bottling, etc.
2. Pruning of Shrubs.
3. Management and potting of window plants.

Lecturer: Mr. Little.
