Grasmere Parish Magazine.

JUNE, 1941.

OPEN HOUSE.

The Rectory will be open for any one, as last year, on Wednesday afternoons between 8 and 10 p.m. This is simply an attempt to provide a meeting-ground where all the various types of people now in Grasmere can meet and make friends with each other. It has been noticeable in bombed areas how much more friendly people have become: let us try to make it true of our own village. There will be two differences from last year: this year there will be a short talk of 10 minutes given by different people on different subjects. There are any number of people in Grasmere who are experts in different things that it seems a pity others should not have the benefit of hearing their knowledge. The other change is that the wireless will be turned on at 9 p.m. for the news, but in another room, so that people can either listen to the news, or not, as they choose.

The first date is Wednesday, June 4th, when Miss Margaret Cropper will tell us something about Westmorland.

GROUP STUDY.

The Study Group will start again on Tuesday, June 10th, at 5-30 p.m. We shall study this time the book by the Archbishop of York "The Hope of a New World." Price 3/6. Would those who would like to come, please get a copy, or borrow it, and be prepared to discuss the first section "What is wrong with the old World." I think that this book will best meet the desires of those who wanted to discuss the modern situation and those who wanted to discuss the Christian faith.

THE MYSTERY OF THE TRINITY.

T. A. Huxley once said to Charles Gore, and gave him leave to repeat it, "that the mystery of the Trinity was not greater than the mystery of ultimate being from any point of view, and that a man was a fool who withheld his belief from it on account of its mysteriousness." One effect of scientific teaching has been to make us dislike mysteries: we prefer things to be cut and dried, placed into a nice little tablet form: hence perhaps the popularity of Nazi-ism in Germany with beautiful catch-words of "Nordic," "Aryan," and "blood and race." The fact that the catch-words are not true does not seem to matter. That is the difficulty of the Christian: he knows that truth is vitally important and therefore he cannot yield to the modern desire for tablets because truth is a mystery and God is mysterious. The Christian cannot just say in short what God is for at bottom he knows that he can only say what God is not: there are no words to describe God: words are human and cannot describe the Invisible. When we say that He is a Trinity — but we do not say that in our Creed: what we say is that we worship the Trinity and that is the point. God is a mystery and that which is mysterious is to be worshipped and cannot be understood. Therefore our attitude to God must be that of worship.

GRASMERE FRUIT

PRESERVATION CENTRE, 1941.

Will all those who have unwanted jam jars—1 lb and 2 lb regulation sizes—please give them to the above Centre? Anyone unable to deliver them to "Greenbank" is asked to notify the Head Supervisor, Miss Martin, "Hazelgarth," who will arrange for them to be collected. Fruit gatherers can be provided, on application to Miss Martin, for anyone desirous of selling surplus fruit to the Centre and who is unable to pick it.

EXPLANATION.

The "Wel-Prest" Service is offered to the Public with a view to relieving the Housewife of one of her most trying duties, i.e., the Weekly Wash, at a price within the reach of every purse.

All articles will be washed thoroughly clean and well pressed.

Tablecloths and Serviettes will be slightly starched, but otherwise no starching or hand ironing will be done.

The work will be returned neatly parcelled, and most articles require no further attention.

RULES

under which this service is offered.

The customer must enter on the opposite side of this label a complete list of articles sent, and fill in the name and address in the space provided.

The Bundle must be securely fastened and this label attached.

Handkerchiefs should be all tied in one handkerchief.

Whilst every care will be taken with customers' goods, we will accept no responsibility for loss or damage under this cheap service, except that goods will be insured against loss by fire to the extent of 20 times washing charge value.

For Laundry use only. No. of articles sent
