THE RUSHBEARING.

The Rushbearing will take place on Saturday; August 5th: the children will be on the Churchyard wall at 4-30 p.m. The Procession round Churchtown at 5 p.m. will be followed by the Service in Church. The collection will be divided equally between the Waifs & Strays and St. Dunstan's Home.

On Sunday, August 6th. the Services will be as follows:—

The Holy Communion at 7, 8, 9-15 and 11-30 a.m.

Mattins at 10-30 a.m.

Evensong at 6 p.m.

The collections at all Services on Sunday will be divided between the funds of the Grasmere School and the National Society.

On Monday, August 7th, the children will fetch their bearings at 5 p.m. and then go to the School Field for games and sports.

St. OSWALD'S DAY.

As the Rushbearing takes place on our actual festival day of St. Oswald there will be a Celebration of the Holy Communion on that day, Saturday, at 8 a.m.

BROTHER CHARLES.

Brother Charles has most unfortunately had a slight breakdown and has been ordered off for a holiday and will be unable, in consequence, to come for our Rushbearing. We shall all hope that he will soon recover and then make us a visit.

The preacher at the Rushbearing will be the Rev. E. E. Oliver, Vicar of Staveley. It will be his first sight of the Rushbearing so we shall hope for a fine day.

WOUNDED.

We have heard that Jack Bindless and Jack Thompson are wounded. We shall all pray that they may soon recover.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

Congratulations to Grenfell Smith and to Jean Billington who have obtained Scholarships to Kelsick Grammar School.

S.P.G. SUNDAY.

The collections on Sunday, August 20th, will be given to the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel.

For further parochial news see third page of cover.

IN MEMORIAM.

Edward Lewis lived for many years a quiet and retired life at his house at Brockstones where he enjoyed all the beauty of the scenery and knew much of the natural life of the district. A Memorial Service was held in Church on Monday, August 24th, when his friends and neighbours came to pray for his soul. Many will wish to express their deep sympathy with his wife.
